

OTHER REQUIREMENTS – Each applicant is invited to attach a personal “submission” piece as described below. Also, all scholarship recipients will be required to present a report, either written or oral, about the programs they attend. These reports must be given at a Daltaí na Gaeilge Immersion Program no later than May of 2024.

STUDENT APPLICATIONS

In addition to seeking to encourage study of the Irish Language, student scholarships are also intended as a way of developing future teachers and assisting our current teachers. Each student applicant is invited to include a “submission” on a topic that would advance teaching the Language. For instance, a new handout, chart or teaching aid that covers a particular aspect of the Language [grammar, vocabulary, verbs, prepositional pronouns, etc.] would be appropriate.

Likewise, a student might outline a particular problem in learning the Language from a student’s point of view or a specific class topic which would be especially helpful or interesting. In other words, the “submission” should assist teachers either by outlining a teaching method or by clearly identifying a study problem experienced by students. Submissions should be as specific as possible, but no particular format need be followed.

TEACHER APPLICATIONS

In addition to seeking to reward those who have given service as teachers, teacher scholarships are also intended to encourage the writing of new materials in the Irish Language. Each teacher applicant is invited to include an original “submission” written in the Irish Language. The “submission” may consist of an article, short story, poem or other appropriate piece. No particular format is required. In the alternative, a teacher’s “submission” may consist of a teaching aid or analysis of a teaching problem or method as outlined above.

Daltaí na Gaeilge will be entitled to keep all “submissions” and use them as it deems appropriate. In particular, it is intended that certain of the “submissions” will be posted on the Daltaí na Gaeilge website.
